A Summer Blessing

May you walk with God this Summer in whatever you do, wherever you go.

Walking with God means.....

Walking with honesty and with courage;
walking with love and respect and concern for the feelings of others.

May you talk to God this Summer and everyday and in every situation.

Talking with God means.....

Praying words of praise for the beauty of creation
Saying prayers of thanks for friends and good times.

Asking God's help in all your decisions
Expressing sorrow when you have failed.

May you talk with God
Everyday.

Amen.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

We pray that those being called by the Lord to be prophets as priests of our diocese in the coming years will know that His "...power is at its best in weakness..." and that, like St. Paul, they can say, "...it is when I am weak that I am strong."

There will be a Vocations Day (for those considering diocesan priesthood) in Buncrana on Sunday 8th September, from 12-6pm. Anyone interested should please contact the diocesan Vocations Director, Fr. Pat O'Hagan by email: pgoh2111@gmail.com

IRISH CATHOLIC BISHOPS PASTORAL LETTER : FREEDOM TO LIVE FULLY, UNTIL DEATH COMES

Providing compassionate care at the end of life.

To address the sensitive issue of compassionate care at the end of life, and in response to the need to inform the faithful of Catholic teaching on this important life issue that affects so many families, the Bishops of Ireland have published the pastoral letter: Freedom to Live Fully, Until Death Comes. You are invited to read this letter and view the accompanying video Through the Valley, which offers personal testimonies by carers and people with terminal illness. The key message of both letter and video asserts that every person possesses inherent infinite dignity that remains intact regardless of their circumstances. In this context, bishops strongly oppose the Oireachtas Committee's proposal to Government to legislate for assisted suicide, and call on support for healthcare workers who uphold the sanctity of life.
