

Don't Sit on the Fence...

There was a large group of people gathered. On one side of the group stood a man, Jesus. On the other side stood another, Satan. Separating them was a fence running through the group.

The scene set, both Jesus and Satan began calling to the people. One by one, each having made up his or her own mind, they went to either Jesus or Satan.

This kept going for a time. Soon enough, Jesus had gathered around him a group of people from the larger crowd, as did Satan.

One man joined neither group. He climbed the fence that was there and sat on it. Jesus and his people left and disappeared, and so too did Satan and his people. The man on the fence sat alone.

As this man sat, Satan came back, looking for something which he appeared to have lost. The man said "Have you lost something?". Satan looked straight at him and replied "No, there you are. Come on with me." The man said, "But I sat on the fence. I chose neither you nor him." Satan said, "That's ok; I own the fence."

"Whoever is not with me is against me." (Jesus in Matthew 12:30)

Prayer of St Augustine

Feast Day 28th August

Late have I loved you, O beauty so ancient and so new; late have I loved you! For behold you were within me, and I outside; and I sought you outside and In my ugliness fell upon those lovely things that you have made. You were with me and I was not with you...You called and cried to me and broke open my deafness: and you sent forth your beams and shone upon me and chased away my blindness... you touched me, and I have burned for your peace.
