

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus Christ, gentle shepherd,
You know your sheep, and you know how to reach their hearts.

Give to the people of the diocese of Derry hearts that are open to the call of the Holy Spirit.

Speak to the hearts of the people of our diocese.

That they may hear your call to follow
you and serve your people as priests or religious.

Awaken in them the courage to answer: "here I am, Lord, Send me."

St Eugene,
pray for us.

St Columba,
pray for us.

St John Vianney,
pray for us.

"I think I may have a vocation to diocesan priesthood but I don't know what to do?"

We suggest the following:

- Pray to God for guidance.
- Reflect on your own gifts and abilities and how they might be of service to God and his Church.
- Talk to someone: a friend who knows you well; a priest; or take time to get guidance from a spiritual director.
- Remember discernment can take some time, so there is no need to be anxious, you are simply trying to find out where God might be calling you.

Thanks from Fr Stephen - the Golden Jubilerian!

It has been a long and lovely celebration. "Give me again the joy of my youth" I was really renewed spiritually and emotionally by the atmosphere and the personal words of appreciation from all angles. I even find myself thinking that "Stephen" you have gone too far this time, You will never live up to it all! And then finding myself shaking hands and having a bit of fun and exchange of sincere conversation about how good the people and priests of Cappagh parish are, in their faithfulness, in the freedom in word and in action, There are people of great piety and prayer, of exemplary willingness to give of their lives and talents to making this world, this parish, whether in its schools, Church activities, social events where all sorts of great things are being hatched and nourished. Let us all thank God and each other for being alive in this place at this time, making a "little taste (or should I say wee piece) of heaven" in the world of 2019.

With love Stephen K.M and Cappagh

Prayer for Summer

Father, creator of all, thank you for summer!

Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight.

Thank you for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation.

Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season.

Draw me closer to you this summer. Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing.

Warm my soul with the awareness of your presence and light my path with your word and counsel; as I enjoy your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for you.

Amen
