God's Plan

There is no greater joy than spending some quality time, one-on-one, with the person we love the most.

We may have heard our dad say, "Let your mother and I spend some time together" or "We are going on our second honeymoon." It is also like the dad who treats his kids to a special dinner to celebrate something special - just father and son; father and daughter.

Special things happen when we open our hearts to the one we love. Christ did this a lot. Always united to his Father, he treasured the moments of solitude he could spend speaking with him of the things they loved.

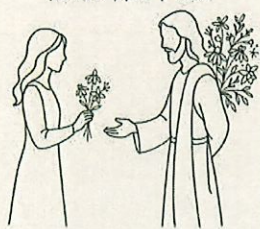

After his love for the Father, Christ's greatest love is us. Like any father, friend or brother, his heart melts when he sees us suffering. Christ always came back from the heart-to-heart times with his Father with a keen awareness of the needs of others and of ways to remedy any problem. It was so natural, almost effortless.

Our own growth in virtue is directly related to how much time we spend in real, personal and passionate prayer with our Lord. From these heart-to-hearts, virtue grows and overtakes us in a very natural way, because our Lord's love is contagious.

God can perform miracles whenever he wants and however he wants. Nothing can hold him back. Still, we often ask ourselves, "Why doesn't Christ perform the miracle that I need in my life - my health problem, my work, my spouse, my children?"

Could it be that we're seeking something less than what He wishes to give us?

Trust His Plan

God has a plan for each of our lives. It includes moments of great joys and of crosses. At times we may not understand God's plan, but that's when we need to pray all the more than before.

It is only through humble, constant, urgent prayer that we'll receive the answers to our heart-wrenching questions and the grace we need to carry the cross courageously and lovingly, following in the footsteps of the one who shows us the way by carrying our cross first.
