The love we show each other as Christians overflows to the whole world

Human beings develop institutions to serve human purposes. We belong to something greater. We belong to the Kingdom of God. Our identity is not in an institution or an organisational structure or a legal system. Our identity is in Jesus Christ, who loves us, who died for us, who rose again, who rules over heaven and earth, and who will one day come in glory to all us to himself.

Our purpose, as beloved children of God, is only this one thing: to love.

To love without judgement. To love without fear. To love without bias, or qualification, or exception.
To love as Christ has loved us.

We are to love the people we want to love and the people we can't stand.

We are to love the people who live the way we think they should, and we are to love the people who don't.

We are to love the people who are just like us, and the people who are so different from us we can't see how we have anything in common.

We are to love as Jesus loved: including people in our lives, walking beside them, eating with them, caring for them, listening to them, including "them" as an integral part of "us".

Because that's what Jesus says. Love. Each. Other.

"God loves us, all of us, evil will not prevail. We are in the hands of God, without fear, united, hand in hand with God and among ourselves, we will go forward.

We are disciples of Christ. Christ goes before us.

The world needs His Light.

Humanity needs Him as the Bridge to reach God and His Love"

Pope Leo XIV
